

As it is a Communion Service today we will be collecting food for the Food Bank. This will happen at each of our communion services.

There is now a much improved collecting point for the Food Bank in the Hub.

Friday 2nd March at 2pm Holy Trinity & St Georges Catholic Church, New Road, Everyone welcome (men and women) as we share with our brothers & sisters around the world

FLOWER APPEAL: There is a Flower Rota in Sandgate Hall and at the moment it has very few names. If you would like to buy and bring flowers to brighten the church on a Sunday please add your name to the list.

Newcomers' Tea: Sunday 18 March: If you've been coming along to church for the past year or two, and haven't yet been invited to a Newcomers' Tea, then Sunday afternoon 18th March from 3.30-5pm, will be a great chance to meet with other 'newcomers', to drink tea and eat cake! It is also an chance to hear briefly from Pastor Marc about our church; from Dorothy Bailey about her role as Lay Community Chaplain; as well as meeting our pastoral coordinator Jenny Goodman; treasurer Bill Broekhuizen and the church stewards. If somehow your name has been overlooked, and you haven't received an invitation, please let one of the stewards know, and we will put that right! Looking forward to getting to know you better

It's the time of year again for everyone with an 'Action for Children' Box to bring it to church for emptying. Please give your box to Joan Stewart as soon as possible. Thank you.

The next 4Cs Coffee Morning is on Saturday 3rd March - 10-12. As usual we will be supporting an overseas charity. There will be a cake (bakers welcomed) and book stall. We look forward to seeing you there.

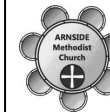

WE NEED YOU! There are loads of opportunities to get involved with the Moving Mountains Mission. Lots of help needed!! Full Information and how to volunteer is on the Notice Board in the Hub.
