* The next café church in our Faith on the Front Line series is this evening (8th April) from 6.30-9pm at the Stricklandgate Costa. The evening is entitled "Amazing Grace" and we will be hearing from members of our Kendal-based Cenacolo Community about their journey from addiction to faith in Jesus. It should be a really inspiring evening, so why not give café church a try and maybe bring a friend - you won't regret it!

Easter Offering. Easter Offering envelopes will be available at church today, for donations to the World Mission Fund of the Methodist Church. This giving primarily supports mission partners working overseas and much more. Methodist Women in Britain are involved in promoting this collection for the World Mission Fund and also writing the Easter Offering Service, which for our Circuit will be on June 10th at Storth Methodist Church.

The next meeting of the Youth Forum is on Tuesday 17th April at 7.30pm at church. All those interested in the work with children and young people are welcome.

** Messy Church: Thank you all for your continued support with this. The April session on 14th will be based on The Two Coins. We need some things collecting if you can help out - clean plastic tubs, cardboard tubes from kitchen rolls or wrapping paper (not toilet rolls), 500ml plastic drinks bottles and egg cartons. We also need some wooden spoons and paper plates if you could possibly help out that would be great. With it being school holidays several of our regular helpers are otherwise engaged so if you feel you could help for a couple of hours on the Saturday afternoon please let us know. Messy Church is developing its own "congregation" so please keep praying for God's blessing on them and us as we seek to learn more about God's love together. Love from Sally & Karen
Please can you put all the items you have collected in the box in the Hub

Safeguarding training: Please note that the Foundation & Refresher training sessions arranged for 1st March have been rescheduled for Thurs 26th April at Sandylands at 7pm. Please could you let Karen know if you are able to attend. All Church Officers including Church Council, Pastoral visitors and group leaders are required to attend this training. Thank you.
