

CIRCUIT SAFEGUARDING OFFICER NEEDED

Irene McKay is stepping down as Circuit Safeguarding Officer at the end of August and we thank her for the loving care and concern she has shown in the role. As you are aware this is not a position that can be left vacant so we therefore need to urgently find someone who will offer to serve as Circuit Safeguarding Officer from 1st September 2018.

Ideally you will already have some safeguarding knowledge and training, for example through your work or having been a foster parent or working with vulnerable people as a volunteer. Additional training and support is readily available from the District and administrative support from the Circuit Administrator.

Interested and want more information? Please speak to your Minister, Pastor or contact the Circuit Administrator, Chris Palmer.

The Methodist Church

Together at Thornleigh 5–7 November 2018 “Five Stories of Hope (and more....)” led by Jan Sutch Pickard.

Thornleigh is at Grange-over-Sands. With a selection of comfortable en-suite bedrooms, lovely views across Morecambe Bay, a lift for easy access, a lounge with comfortable seating, plus helpful, friendly staff and excellent meals, it is a real treat not to be missed. This short break offers an opportunity for learning, personal reflection, prayer and time for leisure and fellowship. This year our speaker is the well-known author, poet, former Methodist Vice President and Warden of the Iona Community, Jan Sutch Pickard, who will lead on the theme “Five Stories of Hope (and more....). There will be a full varied programme on the Tuesday, which will appeal to those who are only able to attend on that day. So, come and join us for our Autumn Residential and enjoy a time of fellowship and refreshment.

Jan Sutch Pickard is a poet, preacher and storyteller living on the Isle of Mull. Mother, grandmother, former Mission Partner in Nigeria and Editor for 15 years for the Methodist Church Overseas Division, she was Vice President of the Methodist Conference 1996-97. She is a former warden of Iona Abbey and served for two periods with the Ecumenical Accompaniment Programme in Palestine/Israel. She is a local preacher, leads worship in the Church of Scotland in Mull and attends Quaker meetings when possible. She is a frequent contributor to IBRA's “Fresh from the Word” daily reading series. Her poetry and liturgy are widely published and used: they include Out of Iona: Words from a Cross Roads of the World and Between High & Low Water: Sojourner Songs (Wild Goose).

We are very aware that there are those who have never attended our District Residential, so may we encourage you to spread the word, so others can attend. We've had several ‘first-timers’ recently, who thoroughly enjoyed their experience of Together at Thornleigh! We look forward to seeing you and them in November!
