SECURITY ALERT

If you are the leader of a group that meets in the building, as the last person to leave, please will you go round the whole building checking that every door (including fire doors and even doors that you don't think your group have used), to make sure that they are all locked?

We have had a run of incidents recently when doors have been left open or unlocked.

This is a massive worry for the security of our building and the people who use it.

REV DEREK ILLSLEY

It is with sadness we announce the death of Rev Derek Illsley, who lived in Arnside.

He'd been in poor health in the last few weeks and recently moved with his wife Irene to live with his son in Southampton. A faithful servant of God, a preacher of the gospel.

May he rest in peace and rise in glory. Our thoughts, love and prayers are with Irene and the rest of the family. Thanksgiving service details will follow.
